“Directions”

Di-rek-shŏns — Tendency toward a particular end or goal; directing, aiming, guiding.

As the end of school approaches we so often look toward the future and take the past for granted. Our high school years seem to fly past us and before we realize it we are on our way to the challenges that lie ahead. High school for many, will be one of the most memorable times of their lives. Yearbooks are published to capture these memories so one can remember them long after his high school years are finished.

The 1983-84 Tom Tom's theme is entitled “Directions”. We felt this name was appropriate considering its dictionary definition and the overall attitude of our school. Our student body works as a whole, but yet each student is a special individual.

The Tom Tom staff has worked hard this year to produce a book packed with the memories and events that you will want to remember. However, we can not take all the credit, for without good school spirit, a fellowship of students and a great faculty, this yearbook would not be possible.

Happy Anniversary D.C.H.S.

In the past several years, schools in Danville have come a long way. As our community grows, the need for bigger and better schools becomes imperative. This year we celebrate our tenth anniversary in our new high school. We've worked hard to get where we are today, and take pride in what we have accomplished. Our first decade here is only the beginning of many years to enjoy; so, "Happy Anniversary DCHS, we are proud of you!"

C

It is not quite nine o'clock at Danville High School, but familiar sights can be seen already. Some students are arriving to school now, others will be tardy and will need to sign in. Many people come in much earlier to study, or for any early practice. No matter when you show up at D.C.H.S., welcome to the 1984 Tom Tom!

Flashbacks '83

The purpose of a flashback section is to capture the sports and events that the previous yearbook missed due to spring distribution and earlier deadlines. This year's sports flashback section includes: Varsity and Reserve Baseball, Girl's and Boy's Track, Golf, and Girl's Tennis. The 1982-83 sport's program proved successful with another year of good participation and a lot of hard work.

"Up Where We Belong"

Prom 1983

Multi-colored balloons added to the festive spirit in the Holiday Inn North on May 14, as students and faculty alike enjoyed last year's prom. With the "Greeks" of Hanover playing most everyone was found on the dance floor.

The first dancers however, were Stacy Grace and Brian Clark, the queen and king. The Junior class of 1983 is to be commended. They were the smallest class in the school, yet they gave the largest a night to remember. Everyone was up where they belonged.

Welcome Class Of ``87``

This year the annual Freshman-Senior reception was changed in format from years past. The tradition had been that the walk-out was held in the gym, and afterwards there was a dance with refreshments.

Instead of a hot gym, the air-conditioned auditorium was used for the Seniors to introduce the Freshmen. No dance was held, but refreshments were served in the commons. The reception was quite successful.

B

A. Vice Presidents Gloria McDonald and John McDugle
B. Candi Murphy escorting Kenny Littrel and Jeff Rader.

D

C. Senior Helen Hensel and Freshman Todd Grace.
D. Becky Jenkins with her sister, Amy.

Europe 1983

The group: (l to r) Candi Murphy, Kimberly Kisner, Kim Morgan, Stacy Grace, Sharan Zielinski, Diana Boyden, Missy McCoy, and Brent Kincaid.

Diana, Sharan and friend enjoy a Spanish garden.

As other passengers look at the departing views, our girls look at the sun: (l to r) Kim K., Stacy, Candi, and Missy.

Europe 1983, was an adventure in the sun (and wind) . . . Portugal, tiled ceramic buildings — inside and out — pink castles, monestaries, fado singing in the deep blue sea . . . Spain, cork trees, rolling landscape, Gothic Cathedrals, Moorish places, castles of kings, flamigo dancing, the sun coast Morocco (Africa), . . . camel rides, veiled woman, two-storied hotel suites, belly dancers for dinner entertainment! Yes, it was educational, and, of course FUN!!

Senior Officers

Back: David Guerrettaz, President; Kim Ward, Secretary

Yes, it's here, at last it's here
The end — the very end — of our senior year
The year to date — if we take it in review
The good times were many — the bad times few
The games — the pizzas — the "I love you!"
The memories remain — echoing through time — the sweet refrain
The pleasurable — the memorable — the unforgettable — the pain
The agony of separation — the broken trust — the nasty remark
Those are packed away — forgotten — as the halls grow dark.
The months have so quickly slipped by There's hardly been time to cry
This is our class — the class of '84
Great — gorgeous — glamorous — full of gusto
Who could want more.

But what of the future — what will it bring
No more dress up days — no more bells to ring.
New frontiers — challenges — ours to explore Sure memories are sweet, but there must be more.
We are ready for the world — but is the world ready for us
Four years — for some more — will it be reduced to dust
A cob web in the corner of someone's mind
Courage — the right path to find.
You are a graduate now — only to your own whims to bow
Yes — there must be more ahead in our life
But — why do I have this feeling I'm not through with strife.

North Elem. School 1971-72 Mrs. Salsman A.M. Kindergarten

North Elem. School 1971-72 Mrs. Salsman P.M. Kindergarten

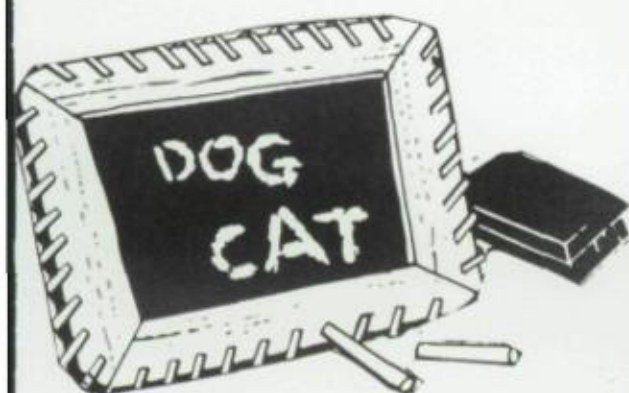

In 1971 the first kindergarten class entered North Elementary and 12 years later they are all grown up. Their faces look a little different, their goals in life have changed, but basically they are the same.

Libby Hughes always did like books. Is it any wonder she works at the library? Tom Barnett knew he would end up playing football for coach Burrows and Darryl Stemaly still doesn't like to wear a tie. Jack Hawkins has always had laughing eyes and Darla Cheesman and Cindy Ball were good Jr. Miss material even then.

Jon Rader always brought a basketball for "Show and Tell" and Jennifer Christie was the "queen" of her afternoon kindergarten class. She and Nick were side by side way back then. Brad Clark still shows his simple grin, Denise Price still has her dimples and Tina Graddy her sweet little smile. Missy Poppe still wears her hair long and straight and Elizabeth Loughmiller's curls still look great.

Things haven't really changed so much in 12 years, have they?

Basketball II

The 1983-84 Boys Basketball season certainly had its fill of ups and downs. The boys played well the whole season, but their definite high point came with the defeat of the undefeated Plainfield Quakers in the county tourney. All season long the mighty Warriors proved that when a game is played with heart, anything can happen.

The Girls Basketball team had a slow season, but with all the spunk and enthusiasm the girls showed, the team was able to defeat one of their county rivals, the Avon Orioles, in the sectional. It was a rebuilding year for the team, so all future opponents beware.

The Freshman Basketball team seems to have what it takes. The players ended with a winning season under new head coach Rick Foster. Many of these freshmen will contribute to the success of D.C.H.S. for several years.

Swimming

The Boy's Swim team seemed to be out of the swim at the beginning of the season. But an empty pool couldn't keep them down. When all repairs were finished the team jumped right in and under Coach Ward ended the year successfully.

Wrestling has become an important part of the Danville winter sports season. The men of the wrestling team, coached by Mr. Schmink and Mr. Messenger, put in many hours of practice before competition. This year's wrestlers, who were cheered on by the Mat Maids, were able to win the eight-way Monrovia meet and set several team as well as personal records.

1983-84 Boys Tennis

Comments:

Richard Hughes Provided the Varsity with all of the wins, winning five in a row personally. The team is young with only one upperclassmen, junior team captain, Chris Himself. Mike Vedenoff had best personal record (6-3) playing reserve and then helped out on the varsity toward the end of the season.

This has been a very frustrating season for our team. The team gave 100% from Aug. 6 to Oct. 19, but sometimes, things just don't work out the way you plan them. This has been a year where the ability was there, but the ever present "mental mistake" was lurking in the background. We experienced several mental break downs that hurt us in crucial situations. This is the first football season in 18 years that I felt we could beat any team that we played, but it didn't happen. To the seniors, I wish you nothing but future success in whatever you choose. Some of you played every game,

Football

some played very little, some could play on any team in the state. I hope that we used up all the bad luck for you. To the underclassmen, let's start thinking about the 1984 playoffs. You have the ability. Let us find the will.

I would like to thank the coaching staff, the administration, the student body and the cheerleaders for their support. Sometimes it becomes very frustrating following a team that comes so close, but yet cannot put enough points on the scoreboard to win.

The 1983 Warrior Freshman Football team had an outstanding season of 8 wins and 1 loss. The Warrior's offense outscored the opponent at a rate of 4 to 1. The defense fielded 2 shut outs. "This team has out played and out practiced any team I have seen. Their desire to win is remarkable, and it's a solid base for success in the future. This team can do it all."

The volleyball team finished the regular season play at 9 wins and 12 losses, although in conference they ended with a 6 win and 3 loss record. "I feel that on the whole we've played well. We worked with a totally new offense this year, which was a transition for the girls to make. It's hard to single out just a few girls. Each girl had her own role to fill, but Kim Ward and Maria Eardley's service has been strong all season, as well as, the all-around play of Julie Sink and Shirley Amery. I've learned so much this year and I hope the girls have too."

Reserve

The Reserve Volleyball team finished with an 8 win and 11 loss record. The girls played much better in the latter part of the season. Cindy Davis and Julie Neal looked strong in setting, while Jana Rader played well at the net. Cindy Davis also supported the team with her dependable service.

Homecoming '83

Homecoming week, spirit breakfast, and float building were only a few of the festivities held as we approached the 1983 Homecoming against Hamilton Southeastern. Banners, posters, and "spirited" dressers filled the hallways during the homecoming season. Many tedious hours were spent as each class worked hard to complete their float. Seniors took first place honors with the theme "Smurf 'Em", followed by the Freshman, Juniors, and Sophomores.

As the day began we cheered our team on with a spirit breakfast held in their honor. We ended school with class competitions and some more encouragement for our Warriors. As the night began, the stands were filled with fans, anxiously awaiting for the game to start. The anxiety heightened at halftime as queen, princess, and float awards were announced. Our men played well as they topped off homecoming with an impressive game against the Royals. Our week of excitement truly did lead to a night of anticipation.

Circus clowns, pink Hula Hoops, and colored balloons help create the theme "The Greatest Show on Earth" for the 1983-84 Danville Jr. Miss pagent. Due to its unusually large size, the pagent was held on two days. The girls were divided into two groups, each performing in different categories both days. Awards received Saturday night were Darla Cheesman, talent; Denise Price, poise and appearance; and Candi Murphy, physical fitness. On Sunday afternoon Lisa Earnest was awarded poise and appearance. Darla Cheesman was chosen Junior Miss. Cindy Ball was named first runner-up. Kelly Szwec was voted spirit of Junior Miss.

The weekend of Junior Miss was a great success and whether the girls received an award or not, they were all considered winners.

Mr. Davis

"Student Awareness of what school is all about is one of the most important qualities D.C.H.S. possesses," claims Principal Davis. Returning for his second year, Mr. Pete Davis happily reports he is "very happy to be here," and as all will agree, we are just as glad to have him with us. His qualities of leadership and the supporting pride he takes in D.C.H.S. makes our school one of the finest.

Principal Peter Davis

Vice Principal Michael Peters

Mr. Peters

Among the new faces at D.C.H.S. this year is a new assistant principal.

Mr. Mike Peters, a former vice-principal of Brownsburg has teamed up with administration in making the 1983-84 school year a success. He has done a lot for D.C.H.S. and his experience and knowledge will benefit us in the years to come.

Superintendent
Mr. Henry Cox

Assistant Superintendent
Mr. Max Gibbs

As we go to school each day, we seldom think of the people who keep our school running smoothly and efficiently. The janitors, cooks, administration, and anyone else who works "behind the scenes" in keeping D.C.H.S. the best it can be. We are grateful for these people and the pride they take in our school. Without them, D.C.H.S. would not be what it is today!

As most schools go, Danville is not that unusual. We have your basic teachers, students, books, classrooms and even a few extras such as a roomful of computers, a planetarium and a 7 ft. long snake named Stanley. We do, however, possess certain qualities that make our school unique, school spirit and pride. It's the kind of spirit you don't just see at a football, or basketball game, it's all around us in the halls, classrooms, and even at home. D.C.H.S. may not be unusual, but it sure is special.

Words of wisdom from the senior class president.

Let's get out of here.

Hurray, it's almost over!

Wholly Moses! 90 words a minute!

Spirit Is A Feeling
Not A Word.

Can I keep him Mom?

A marching we will go.

Wake me when it's over.

Gag me with a spoon!

All are hard at work.

The next thing to being there.

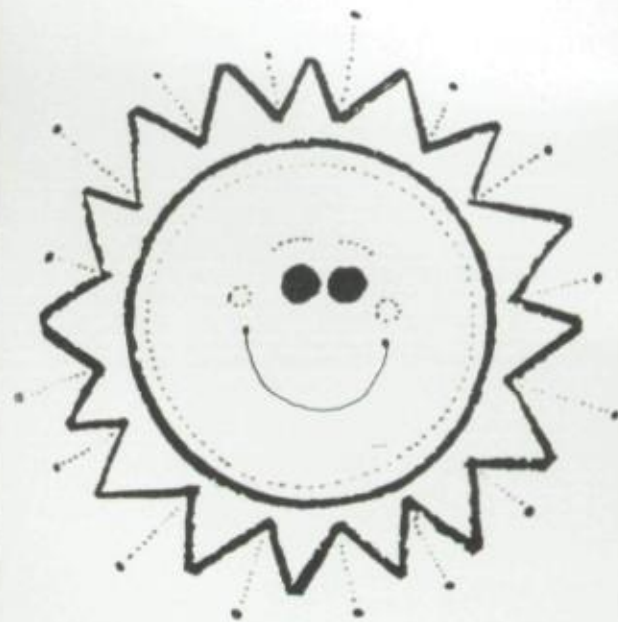

Just relaxing, Mike?

Please, not while I'm eating.

Would you people shut-up?

Ahhh!

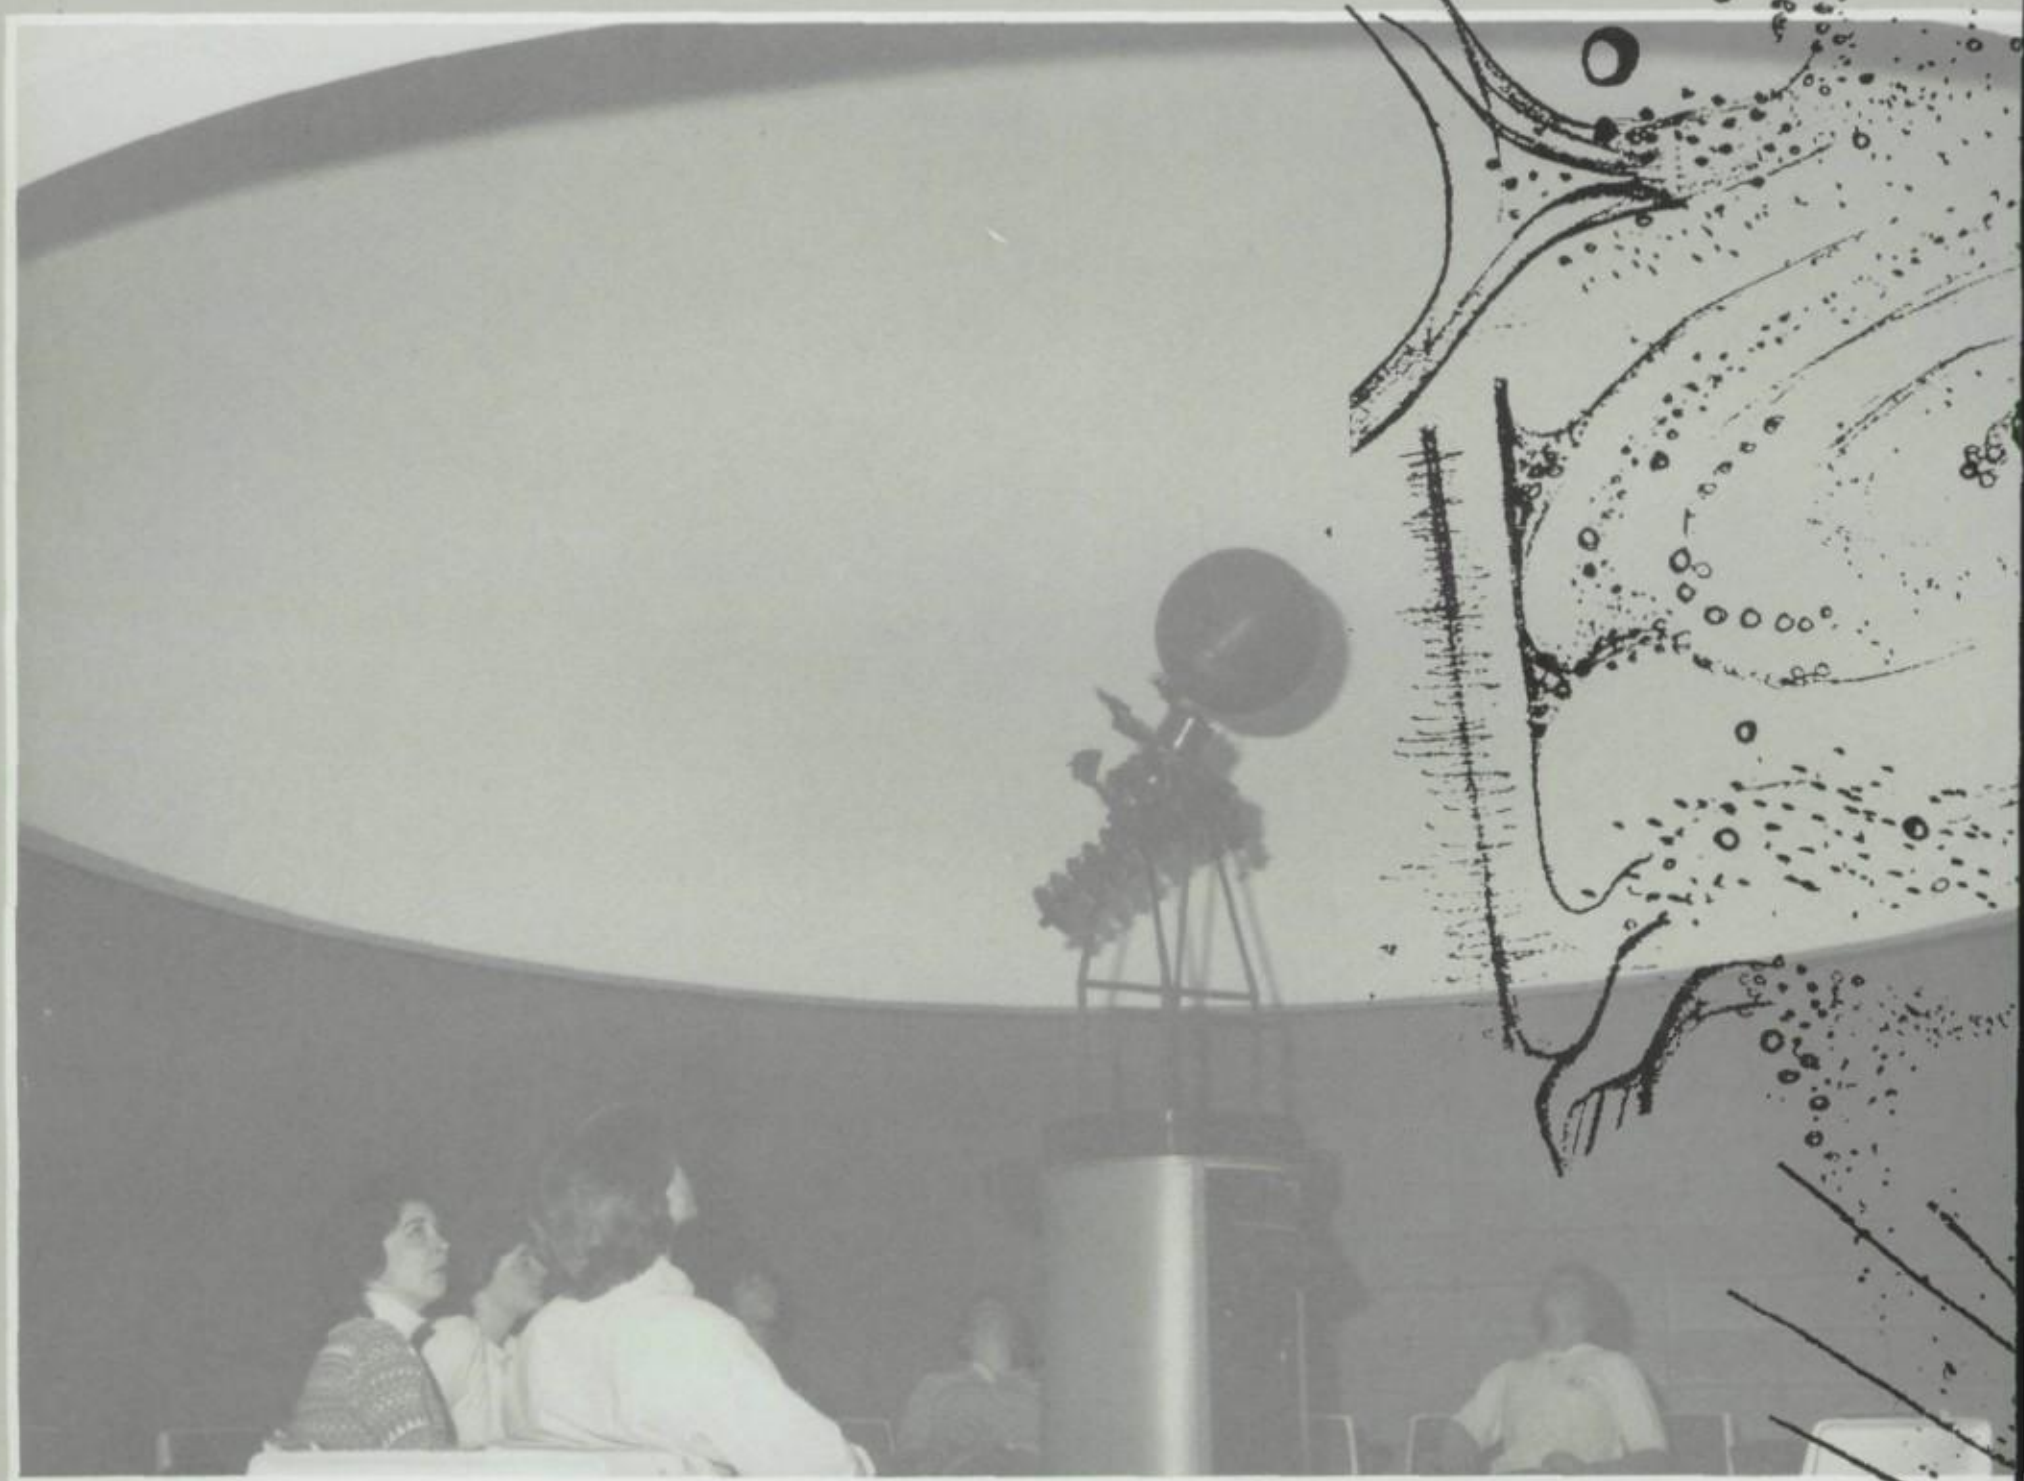

What's all that white stuff out there?

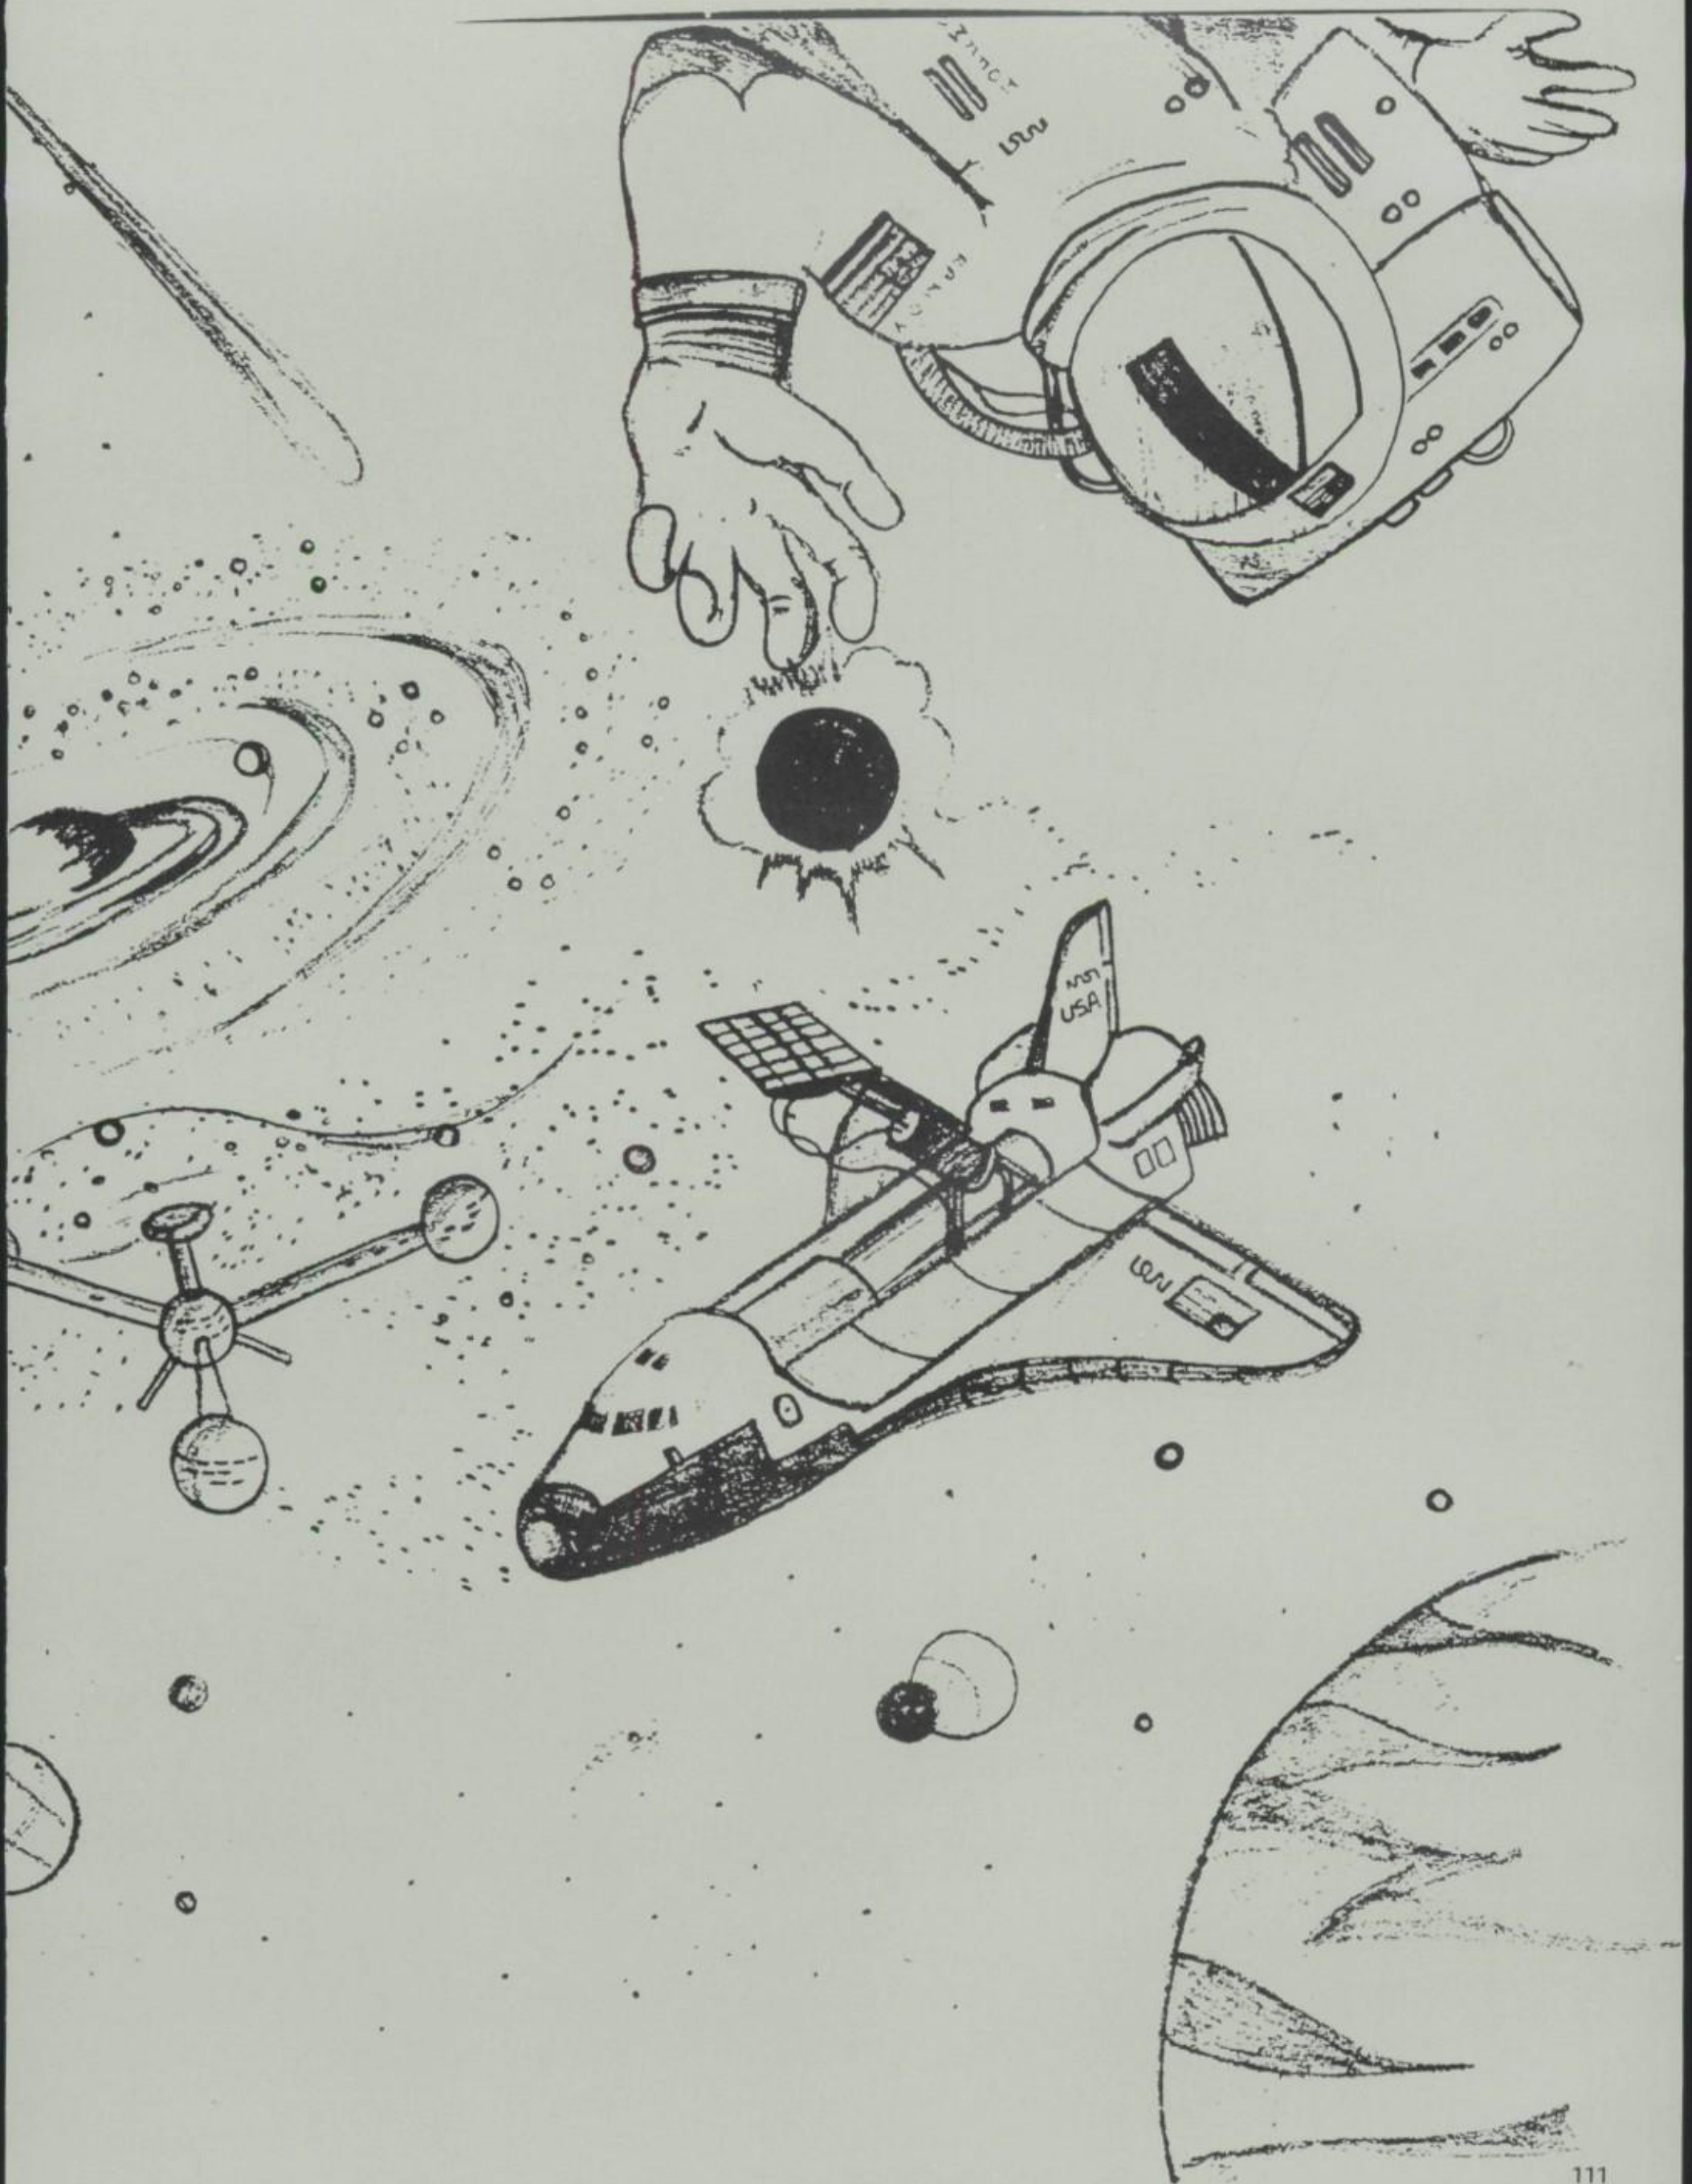

Within this century man has stood upon a world beyond the earth. Spacecraft have visited distant planets. Powerful telescopes have probed to the edge of our expanding universe. What drives man in this search? Where and when did it all begin?

In the planetarium one can take a look at the past and into the future. Visitors can venture back to learn how early man measured time, read star patterns and built permanent monuments to this knowledge.

The D.C.H.S. Planetarium Helps Us Look To The Stars.

And Now
A Word . . .

What are these people doing?

What?

When you're in the back
You don't have to study.

Why are these girls ashamed to be seen with Wade?

From The Classroom.

Eric, you're sooooo funny.

Eager students must sometimes be held back.

I'll go peacefully.

Study!!!

Student Council
Hard work, dedication, and a good representation of the student body, are essential qualities for a successful
student council.

This year's council has worked together and produced the effort needed to make our 1983-84
school year one of the best.

There is something for everyone at D.H.S. Whether you are interested in computers or homemaking, there is a club to join. A wide variety of organizations are offered to meet the needs of each individual student. Anyone who comes to D.H.S. will find something that appeals to him. A special thanks to the sponsors of all of our clubs.

It's 3:30 and final bell has rung, signifying the end of school. The end of the school year, that is. For most it will be a short three months before coming back, for others a new future will be laid before them. It's only a matter of time before we all reach the goals we have set, the challenges we make,
and the hopes we have of what tomorrow may bring.

Good luck to the seniors who are stepping out into the world. The best part of today is thinking of what tomorrow will bring.
